

General intercessions

The Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

Celebrant: Moses kept his hands raised in prayer for all God's people and so we bring our needs before God's throne.

Reader:

That Christians across the world may always enjoy the freedom to pray in public and to worship God according to His command:

Lord, hear us ...

That our national and local leaders may seek the common good and always strive to assist those most in need:

Lord, hear us ...

For all who have no voice or standing in society: that we may be aware of all who appear forgotten and raise their hopes and needs before others:

Lord, hear us ...

That we may persevere in prayer and good works to eliminate every form of injustice against human life, especially for the unborn:

Lord, hear us ...

That all who are in need of our prayers, especially the sick or the suffering, may be surrounded by God's grace and healing love:

Lord, hear us ...

That our departed loved ones may be welcomed by the angels into Paradise:

Lord, hear us ...

Celebrant:

Let us seek the prayers of Our Lady of the Rosary as we say: Hail Mary...

Father, we thank you for the power of prayer, give us the joy of knowing that love all the days of our lives. Through Christ our Lord.
