Palm Sunday of The Lord's Passion (A)

Celebrant: Christ suffered and died so that we might become children of God. As such, we now pray to the Father.

Reader:

That Christians may be kept safe from doubt and strong against all temptation:
Lord, hear us ...

That the saving death of the Lord may restore in us a deep reverence and respect for every human life, especially for the unborn, the weak and vulnerable;
Lord, hear us ...

That this Holy Week may nourish and strengthen our Faith and give witness to the Lord's sacrifice for all our families, friends and community;
Lord, hear us ...

That the sick and the suffering may experience the comfort and strength of being accompanied by friends and family:
Lord, hear us ...

That our beloved departed may be welcomed into the joy of everlasting life won for us by the Lord in his Passion:
Lord, hear us ...

Celebrant:

Let us seek the prayers of Our Lady of Sorrows: Hail Mary...

Father, keep before our eyes the suffering and death of your Son. May we find in him strength for our journey and victory over every evil. Through Christ our Lord.
